Mayors Message – Hyrum City is fortunate to have a volunteer fire department. Twenty-six men and two women currently serve on our department. They average 15 calls a month, serving Hyrum, Nibley, Millville and wherever they may be needed for backup. I appreciate these men and women for their dedicated service.

Fire Chief Kevin Maughan says there is a need for more volunteers. It's a plus to have residents that can respond to calls during the daytime, where many firemen are employed outside the city. All equipment and training needed will be provided. You don't have to be strong. Firefighting is a team effort. If you are 21 or older, male or female, you can pick up an application at the Hyrum City Offices.

Sincerely,
Mayor Stephanie Miller
